ORDER

In exercise of powers conferred under Para 35 of Employees' Pension Scheme, 1995, the Central Govt. has directed the following:-

"The employees whose details like Aadhaar Number and Bank Account Number have been seeded in their UAN and whose UAN has been activated may submit claims in Form 10-D-UAN directly to the Commissioner without attestation of their employers, in such Form and manner as may be specified by the Central Provident Fund Commissioner, for fast settlement of claims."

2. Pursuant to the said direction Central Provident Fund Commissioner hereby prescribes the new Form 10-D-UAN for all employees whose AADHAR Number and Bank details have been seeded after due verification by the employer with digital signature and the details in Form No.11 New have been completed.
3. All other employees not fulfilling the above conditions shall continue to make their claim for pension in existing Form No.10-D.
4. It is reiterated that Form No. 10-D-UAN need not be attested by employer and should be submitted by the employee directly to the respective jurisdictional EPF office.
5. These directions shall be operational with immediate effect.
