Subject: Para 68HH: Non-refundable advance to a member in case of continuous unemployment for a period of not less than one month.

Ref. No.: MOL&E Notification No. G.S.R.1182(E) dated 6th December 2018.

Sir/Madam,

Please find enclosed a copy of the above said notification issued by Ministry of Labour & Employment. The said notification shall come into force from the date of its publication in the official gazette.

The newly inserted paragraph 68HH shall enable a member who is no longer in employment for a month, to avail upto 75% of the total provident fund standing to his credit. Further, since the membership would be retained, it would enable a member to avail pensionary benefits at the time of retirement. The advance is non-refundable.

Kindly take note that the newly notified paragraph 68 HH shall be, in addition to, the existing paragraph 69(2) of the Employees' Provident Funds Scheme, 1952 The said paragraph 69(2) enables a member to withdraw the full amount standing to his credit in the provident fund on ceasing to be an employee in any establishment for a continuous period of two months immediately preceding the date on which he makes an application for withdrawal. The requirement of two months waiting period shall not, however, apply in cases of female members resigning from the services of the establishment for the purpose of getting married.

Yours faithfully,

Sanjay Kumar
(Sanjay Kumar)

Regional P.F. Commissioner – I
